Why is the sky blue and not pink or paisley or plaid?

When a little girl wonders that age old question, "Why is the sky blue?" her imagination takes her on a beautiful journey of color, science and friendship. This gorgeously illustrated picture book works equally well in the classroom or at bedtime.

JOSH TUINIGA is an award winning illustrator and creative director located in the Seattle area. After studying at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Josh moved back to the Pacific Northwest and started his own art and design agency, The Medium. Josh lives in North Bend, WA with his wife and two daughters who helped him convert a vintage bluebird school bus into an art studio.

About Xist Publishing

At Xist Publishing, we create books for the touchscreen generation. All of our children's picture books are designed for the devices that kids crave and we are committed to encouraging a lifetime love of learning, no matter what form it takes.

As a digital-first publisher, children's eBooks are our first priority. But we also know that parents love to snuggle up with their kids and flip through a picture book—so we do that too. As technology evolves, kids will too. As parents ourselves, we want to make sure that no matter how kids are reading in the future, they're reading and loving it.
